When Hamill syndicates his glaucous-green appeal, he usually identifies himself as "Ralph" or "Ralphie," the name he used in his first novel, My Darling Clementine. He is now 67, and his hair is a mix of white and brown. He is still a bit of a loner, but he has a close-knit group of friends, including his wife, Jane, and their two children, a son and a daughter. He is also a member of the Writers Guild of America, and he has been a part of several film projects, including The Godfather and The Godfather Part II. He is also a member of the National Academy of Arts and Letters, and he has been a part of several other organizations, including the American Film Institute and the National Endowment for the Arts.
